

Wine & Spirits

91 | Andis

2021 Sierra Foothills Cabernet Franc This starts off caramelly, bound by a heavy frame of oak. However, the flavors open quickly with air, and soon the wine turns toward a sleek, dusty blackberry essence, medium in body with a minty back note. Decant it for braised pork. —Reviewed by Patrick J. Comiskey.

